

FUND YOUR FUTURE

Financial aid helps make a world-class education at Berkeley a reality.

TYPES OF FINANCIAL AID

- ▶ Scholarships: Awarded on the basis of academic merit combined with financial need.
- ▶ Grants: Awarded on the basis of financial need and do not need to be repaid.
- ▶ Loans: Borrowed funds repaid over a period of time, usually after you leave school and with interest.
- ▶ Work-study: Awarded on the basis of financial need that you may earn by working at a part-time job.

FINANCIAL AID OPPORTUNITIES

Blue and Gold Opportunity Plan: The University of California Blue and Gold Opportunity Plan makes college more affordable for California residents.

This plan ensures that UC tuition & fees are completely covered by a combination of scholarships and grants for California residents. Families who have an annual income up to $80,000, and who meet all aid eligibility requirements, qualify.

California Dream Act Student Financial Aid: Students who are not eligible to file a FAFSA and who qualify for a Nonresident Supplemental Tuition exemption (AB 540) should apply for aid by completing the California Dream Act Application available at: dream.csac.ca.gov.

Priority deadline is March 2.

California Dream Act students are eligible for Cal Grants, UC Berkeley grants, scholarships, and loans, California Dream Loan, work-study, and external scholarships.

Middle Class Scholarship (MCS): The Middle Class Scholarship is for California resident undergraduates with family incomes and assets up to $171,000.

Scholarship amounts are determined by the California Student Aid Commission and are based on a sliding scale measured by family income and the other types of financial aid a student is receiving.
